

December Musician of the Month

You!

This month you are all our musicians of the month.

You have worked so hard and performed incredibly well in your Christmas performances.

Your performance skills have included singing tunefully and in time with others, playing instruments and performing with confidence.

All the grown-ups are extremely proud of each one of you.

