

This week our Eco Ambassadors took part in the RSPB's Big School's Birdwatch. We spent time around the school grounds monitoring and logging what birds we could see. Despite the noises on the playground, we were able to see magpies, pigeons, blackbirds & gulls. We will now be able to submit our findings along with hundreds of other schools throughout the UK.

Well done Eco!