

Reading
Ambassadors 2023
- 2024

YEAR 2 - 6

Do you love books?

Are you a passionate reader?

Can you talk about authors and genres?

Pitmaston are looking for one child from each class to promote a love of reading around the school and with all children. We are looking for a passionate, confident reader to participate in the following roles;

- Be confident to talk to other children about reading
- Have good knowledge of books and authors
- Ensure book corners around school and the school library are well presented and tidy
- Share a passion for reading with children and adults, including visitors to the school
- Read to other children at playtimes and/ or lunchtime
- Promote books in the school newsletter by completing a simple book review
- Support readers across the school as required to choose and find books of interest from both the library and class book corners
- Create posters to promote reading around school
- Attend assemblies throughout the year to promote reading and books
- Create book/ reading quizzes for year groups based on books they are reading
- Attend monthly meetings at lunchtime with Mrs Watson
- Be part of learning walks about books around school
- Understand there are different types of reading material - fiction, non-fiction, poems, playscripts, etc.
