Science principles
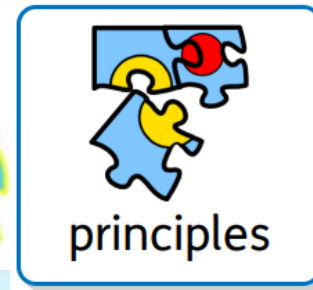

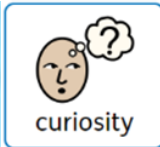

Pitmaston Primary School and Pre-School Nursery

Promotes a sense of excitement and curiosity Encourage children to ask and answer scientific questions

A scientist is a person who studies the world around us, including things living or non-living.

Know how science has changed our lives

Develop skills and knowledge through practical investigations

Creates future, inquisitive scientists Understand science is vital to the world's sustainability

excitement
curiosity
me
inquisitive
future scientists

ask questions
investigations
sustainability
world

Biology   Chemistry   Physics