OLIVER JEFFERS

FACTS ABOUT OLIVER:

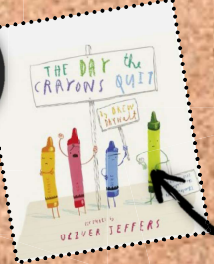

Oliver was born in Australia, but raised in Belfast, Northern Ireland. Oliver says he did not set out to be an author, his ambition has always been fine art.

He has written and illustrated many award winning and bestselling picture books, that have been translated into many languages. His best sellers include 'How to Catch a Star', 'Lost and Found' and 'The Heart and the Bottle'.

Oliver illustrated the very popular book 'The Day the Crayons Quit'.
