

Our favourite authors and illustrators

LENNY HENRY

Our Library Is OPEN Monday to Friday

In 2015 Lenny was awarded a Knighthood by the Queen for his services to drama and charity.

FACTS ABOUT LENNY:

Lenny Henry's full name is Sir Lenworth George Henry. He was born on the 29th August 1958 in Dudley, England. He was named Lenworth after the doctor who delivered him.

Lenny is a famous comedian, actor and writer, first finding fame with his comedic impersonations.

In 1985 Lenny co-founded the charity 'Comic Relief' which led to the first 'Red Nose Day' in 1988. Lenny has helped raise over 1 billion pounds to support those in need.

His first children's book 'The Boy with Wings' was published in 2021.

I am an author

Check out my books

I ♥ Books