

4R absolutely loved our trip to Diglis Fish Pass. We became geographers for the day, using everything we've learnt about rivers this half term to explore the River Severn and the fish pass. Later, we completed a STEM activity using trial and error, it was great!

